DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him upstairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonin unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

THE REAL TEST

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Charged with Malfeasance.

As the result of disclosures before the dispensary investigating committee at Columbia, S. C., Gov. Hayward yesterday authorized the attorney general to prosecute H. H. Evans, L. W. Boykin, and J. B. Towell, former members of the dispensary board, for malfeasance in office. The committee adjourned yesterday and the action of the governor immediately followed.

On Wednesday night it was testified by Lewis W. Parker, manager of a large mill in South Carolina, that J. Lanahan, of Baltimore, had confessed to him that, although he had paid a member of the dispensary purchasing board $1,500, he was unable to get any business, as the brother-in-law of the member in question represented another house. The statement was corroborated yesterday by E. W. Robertson, a banker. It was brought out that the conversations with Lanahan occurred at a hotel in New York, where Parker and Robertson were attending a meeting of mill directors.

C. C. Davis, a contractor, swore yesterday that while building a house for Evans, at Newberry, he several times saw in Evans' possession large amounts of money, a thousand-dollar bill generally being on the outside. On one occasion, he said, he strained his curiosity, and had seen as many as three bills of that denomination.

Once he had seen Evans with a beaver hat full of money in greenbacks. Evans, he said, had told him that his friends had given him the money and other presents, and that these friends were liquor dealers. At that time, he said, Evans was chairman of the purchasing board.

Davis further stated he had heard Evans complain that other members of the board were not giving him his share of the orders according to arrangement, and that he had laid a trap by which he and Briggs Wilson, manager of a distillery in Columbia, had seen other whisky men pass rebate money to other members of the dispensary board. Evans and Wilson, he said, were standing on a table looking through a transom.

Negro Confesses.

Gabriel Battaile, the young negro who has for some weeks been confined in the jail at Fredericksburg awaiting the day for execution for a criminal assault upon Miss Lena Rogers in King George county, has made a full confession of his crime. The confession was made in a letter, which he gave to Sergeant Chichester, addressed to Rev. S. A. Brown, pastor of one of the colored churches of Fredericksburg. Until yesterday Battaile has stoutly denied his guilt and efforts have been made to stay his execution.

Yesterday afternoon Battaile followed up his written confession by signing a written statement in the presence of two colored ministers, who have acted as his spiritual advisers, to the effect that he met Miss Lena Rodgers in the road, and assaulted her. He then left her after she told him she would tell her father. She went up the road crying and he went to his home.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Battaile was taken from the jail in Fredericksburg and in charge of the Fredericksburg military company under command of Capt. M. B. Rowe, started on the trip to King George Courthouse where he was to be hanged today. A great crowd assembled on the streets when the military started for King George, among them many negroes. Battaile seems perfectly resigned to die. He says he has faith that he will be saved.

Governor Swanson at a late hour Wednesday night gave final consideration to the petition requesting a respite for Gabriel Battaile. The Governor positively declined to interfere or to change the verdict of the court and jury and announced that it will not be his purpose in the future to interfere in similar cases.

Not to be Tried Again.

Josephine Terranova, the 17-year-old Italian girl who killed her uncle and aunt in New York, because, as she said, they had terribly abused her, is to go absolutely free. She was tried for the murder of her aunt. The trial ended last Friday, when the jury, after 17 minutes, returned a verdict of not guilty. Assistant District Attorney Ely, who conducted the prosecution, demanded that she be sent back to the Tombs pending a trial on the indictment for the murder of her uncle. The District Attorney, however, has decided that it is not worth while to put the county to the expense of another trial. So the girl will be taken before Justice Scott next Monday and the remaining indictment against her will be formally dismissed. There had been some idea on the part of the prosecuting officers that the girl should be sent to some institution. It has not been definitely decided now, however, that no further proceedings of any kind will be taken in her case and she will be free on Monday to go where she pleases.

Consumption a Social Problem.

Writing of the campaign against consumption in the June Everybody's Magazine, Eugene Wood says that there is nothing particularly new on the medical or scientific side of the problem to report pending the outcome of Von Behring's experiment with tuberculase, a substance separated from the growth of the tuberculosis bacilus. He thinks it quite generally accepted now that people with light hair and blue eyes should not live out-of-doors where it is always bright sunny, because they lack the pigmentation to absorb the light rays, which become a source of irritation and fidgets. A cloudier climate is better for blondes, and there is nothing dangerous in a damp climate. The statement is also made that "those who don't care for meat are very likely to die of tuberculosis." Referring to the effort of the consumption fighters to enlist the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Wood says that the disease is essentially a social problem, and he concludes that something is wrong with the way we live now. We know its causes and how to stop its spread, but, nevertheless, a great majority of the people in homes and factories are so living as to be unable to resist tuberculosis, and the social gulf between these people and the better classes is not wide enough to separate us from the disease that declimates. He believed that when this fact is squarely faced the people will find a social remedy.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 8, 1906.

THE House of Representatives yesterday listened to a bitter arraignment of the President at the hands of Representative Brundige, of Arkansas, a member of the appropriation committee. Taking the items for the refurnishing of the White House, the care of the grounds, and the traveling expenses of the President as his text, Mr. Brundige contrasted the expenses of this and former administrations. Under the Cleveland administration there was expended for the Executive Department, including the salary of the President, $137,200, while the bill under consideration carries $253,340. In addition to this, Mr. Brundige said that there were forty policemen detailed to the care of the White House and grounds, and this was an additional $40,000 added, bringing the total to nearly $300,000, which he denominated as extravagance run mad. He criticised the item appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the President, and, incident thereto, said it was probably made for the purpose of providing for a repetition of the "muck rake" speech. "As for myself," he said, "and I believe also for a large proportion of the people of this government, we have heard enough of this muck rake nonsense and tomfoolery, and we are disgusted with it." He dwelt at length upon the arrest of Mrs. Minor Morris. Mr. Brundige was frequently applauded by the democrats, the republican side of the chamber being almost deserted. The facts brought out by Mr. Brundige are incontrovertible.

THE oration of Dr. Ratcliffe on the late Senator A. P. Gorman at the funeral obsequies yesterday was a just tribute to a truly great man. Among other things the doctor said:

The characteristic instruction of our departed friend controls our services and our thoughts today. His best experiences were in the home. His most sacred intimacies were reserved for its seclusion. His most cherished names were those of wife and son and daughter, and it was characteristic that he required that in these last offices there should be an exclusion of noise and parade and multitude and that all be limited to the sympathy, simplicity and tenderness of the family affections and of intimate friendship. These incidents in the life of the deceased mark the greatness of the man. Simplicity is great; greatness is simple. He understood, and was sure that within this circle he would be understood, and it is a fine and beautiful tribute, as it is the triumph of the American home, when our hearts are saddened and fears multiplied with the demoralization of home and society and defiant liberty and license. It is pleasant to contemplate that in such on hour thore comes a reassurance concerning the simplicity and purity and promise of the domestic life. That simple instruction of lifts into a higher plane before all eyes and to all hearts the beauty and sanctity and sacredness of the American home. Senator Gorman accepted the Bible as the word of God. He believed in the mission of the church, and in the message which the church brought.

THE BOOM of Mr. William J. Bryan for the democratic nomination for President of the United States, which was started by Mr. Thomas Taggart, of Indianapolis, chairman of the democratic national committee, is apparently spreading over the western States. Already the democratic State conventions of Missouri, Arkansas, Indiana and South Dakota have officially indorsed the candidacy of Mr. Bryan. Other States which will hold conventions shortly are being canvassed in his interest. A canvass made of Illinois democratic newspaper editors shows them to be unanimously in favor of his nomination. Carter Harrison, former Mayor of Chicago, and himself a possibility for the nomination, announces himself as a Bryan supporter.

OLD-FASHIONED ice cream, the delight of both young and old, is said to be in danger of passing away in this day of substitution and adulteration. When Prof. Stillman, of Stevens Institute, gave a dinner to two friends recently, at which most of the viands were made artificially by chemical means, he announced that to make vanilla ice cream by artificial means, the alchemist took some triple refined cottonseed oil, placed it in a centrifugal machine which revolved at a velocity of 3,000 revolutions a minute. A beautiful emulsion was thereby produced, which was then frozen, chemically of course. The flavor was obtained by the addition of vanillin, glucin, and nitrobenzol. They say that ice cream composed as above is sold in many southern states where cottonseed oil is more plentiful and consequently cheaper than milk or cream.

ACCORDING to Mayor Riddick Norfolk is burdened with a set of officials the only desire of many of whom seems to be to do enough to get to the City Treasurer's office when it comes time to draw their pay each month. The Mayor says that what is wanted is the city run on a business principle. The Mayor goes on to say that there is great need of a live business organization, one that will do things.

From Washington.

Washington, June 8.

Congressman Bowers, of Mississippi, chairman of the campaign committee of the democratic congressional committee, today gave out the following statement of his views of the recent election in Oregon, and its effect on the summer and fall elections of members of Congress. "The Oregon election is an indication of the revolt of the people against the stand pat policy of the republican party. In nineteen hundred and four, Oregon gave President Roosevelt forty-two thousand majority out of a total vote of nine-five thousand. This year—two years later—Oregon returns to office with an increased majority, Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain, democratic incumbent for the past four years; reduces the majorities in both congressional districts given the republican candidates, and, on a popular vote for United States senator, against the immense majority given President Roosevelt, offers the republican managers the cold consolation of a bare five thousand majority for the republican nominee, Jonathan Bourne, jr., over the democratic nominee, John M. Gearin, incumbent. The issue of the revision of the tariff was presented by the Oregon democrats, and it was dwelt upon in the utterances of all the newspapers which supported the democratic nominees. Inasmuch as the majorities received by republican candidates who were elected were the smallest since the presidential election of eighteen hundred and ninety six, democrats may take warm comfort from the Oregon outcome and gird themselves for fighting a winning battle for the control of the next House of Representatives."

The Roosevelt children, Ethel and Quentin, started for Oyster Bay at 9 o'clock this morning. They were accompanied by Steve Connell, the secret service detective; Mlle. Drelet, their governess; a colored cook, butler and maid from the White House force. As soon as Connell takes his charges safely to Oyster Bay he will return to his post of duty as guard at the White House. The secret service will not maintain a guard at Sagamore Hill until after the arrival there of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

The President this morning received a telegram from the officers of the Washington State Grange now holding its 18th annual session at Spokane, which says: "The Washington State Grange, in 18th annual session, repudiates the reported attempt of the attorney for certain corporate interests to speak for the farmers of this country in opposition to your efforts to remedy condition of meat packers or meat packing."

"How did the Interstate Commerce Commission learn all about the graft in the Pennsylvania Railroad," is the question being asked in Washington. Congressmen and Senators, even Senator Tillman and Representative Gillospie, the joint authors of the resolution under which the investigation into the relations of the railroads to the coal industry is proceeding, are surprised that the graft has reached such gigantic proportions as to make rich men out of insigaificant clerks. That the commission has been able to uncover so much pollution that the public did not suspect and of which the high officials, so it might seem, were in ignorance, all in a few weeks, is what is occasioning so much talk. It has been hinted that some one has gained immunity by revealing the polluted strata, but it can be said authoritatively that nothing is farther from the truth. The secret of the whole success is the system that the commission set to work immediately after the passage of the congressional resolution.

Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill, one of the authors of the famous beef inspection report, had a long talk with the President this morning. It is supposed that the subject of Mr. Neill's testimony before the House agricultural committee was discussed. "I rather like the affair as far as it has gone," said Mr. Neill. "I am having just as much fun out of it as anyone and I don't care how long they keep on the stand." Mr. Neill said that he had no idea when the supplementary report on the packing houses, now in course of preparation, will be made public. Asked if he had any sensational testimony for today's session of the committee, he laughed and said: "Well, I come from a line of ancestors that did not object to killing an occasional landlord, so I do not have any fears if the scrimmage does get hot."

The President today sent to the House committee on agriculture copies of two reports of inspection of the Chicago packing houses conducted by the Agriculture Department before the Neill-Reynolds investigation. In his letter of transmission, the President comments on the immediate and extraordinary improvement in packing house conditions following the forecasts of the Neill-Reynold's report, and quotes a letter from a friend in Chicago who described the haste of the packers in cleaning up and renovating their establishments as "amusing if it were not so nearly tragic." The President further says that his investigations in Packingtown are not yet finished, and that he is not yet prepared to make a final statement either with reference to the complaints against the bureau of animal industry or "as to certain of the graver charges in connection with the adulteration of meat products, as well as certain other matters."

James Bronson Reynolds, joint author of the famous Neil-Reynolds report dealing with conditions in the Chicago packing houses, was the first witness this morning before the House committee on agriculture. Mr. Reynolds told of a visit he made to the stock yards at Berlin, Germany, two years ago, and how he was impressed with the absence of woodwork and the cleanly conditions prevailing. As to slaughtering, the conditions did not excel those in Chicago; but the absence of woodwork in the German establishments, he deemed a point of great superiority.

The indications are that the invitation of the Chicago packers to the House committee on agriculture to make a personal inspection of Packingtown will be declined. "I do not think there is any prospect of the committee going there at this time," said Representative Wadsworth, of New York, chairman of the committee, this morning.

Consular agents have reported to the State Department that the Australian military authorities are considering the adoption of shelter tents, as used by Japan during the late war. The tent consists of a waterproof sheet with hooks and eyelets, the weight being trifling. Each Japanese soldier carried one of these sheets in his kit, and any number of them can be laced together, the custom being for four men to form a bivouac. Arms are piled in the usual way, and the sheets are spread over the piled weapons, affording shelter from both heat and rain. It gas been suggested that American officers investigate the merits of the shelter tents.

The business situation in the United States is unusually good, according to a statement of the bureau of manufacturers, printed today in the Daily Consular and Trade Reports. "During the first week in May stocks fell about ten per cent.," from the highest point attained earlier in the year the statement reads, "but there was no corresponding depression in trade. Railway earnings have continued large, the gain for April being 9.3 per cent. over the same month of 1905, and other standards of measurement make equally gratifying exhibits."

News of the Day.

Charles Louis Tucker, convicted of the murder of Mabel Page in 1904, will be electrocuted in the State prison at Charlestown, Mass., some day next week.

Consternation was created among the telephone girls at the Cortland street, New York, telephone exchange by an order issued by the manager which forbids the girls from wearing open work hosiery, short sleeves, peek-a-boo waists and Buster Brown waists.

A decreee was signed last Monday by Judge Wickes, in Circuit Court No. 2, Baltimore, granting August Lemmert an absolute divorce from Barbara M. Lemmert. Mr. Lemmert, who is a jeweler, alleged in his bill for divorce that his wife abandoned him to become a follower of Dowie, the self-styled Elijah.

Running at the rate of forty miles an hour, the westbound Pennsylvania Limited at 2:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon, through the blunder of a telegraph operator, crashed into the Parkersburg construction train on the Pennsylvania cut-off, a mile east of Lancaster, Pa. Three members of the Limited crew were injured.

Susan Shetter, of York Haven, seven miles from York, Pa., while laboring under an affection of the mind, made an attempt to kill her 16-year-old daughter, Nora, yesterday. The woman had the daughter down, and with uplifted butcher knife was about to plunge it into her heart, it is alleged, when a son interfered and saved the girl's life. The woman was put under arrest.

The Imperial Statistical Office in Berlin has issued a monograph on the finances of the German states and Empire. The total states' debt in 1905 was $3,045,250,000, and that of the Empire, $7,567,000,000, plus $62,000,000 in short term-bills outstanding. The value of the state-owned railways was $3,490,750,000, or slightly more than the total of the States' debts. The states own 1,748,465 acres of cleared land and 11,230,414 acres of forest.

The judicial authorities in Rome have resumed investigation into the case of the disappearance of the famous Ascoli Cope of Pope Nicholas IV.—which was bought by J. P. Morgan, and subsequently returned by him to the government—with greater energy than before, there seeming to be strong evidence that the cope was sold by ecclesiastics of the cathedral, with the connivance, or at least in consequence of the negligence, of the Bishop of Ascoli, who recently was removed by the Pope.

A total loss of $100,000 was caused by a fire following an explosion in a tobacco factory in Hopkinsville, Ky., yesterday which for a time threatened the destruction of the city. The fire followed the explosion of a boiler in Kennedy & Elgin's tobacco factory. The warehouse, the plant of the Consumers' Ice and Coal Company, J. C. Jackson's residence and several small buildings were burned. with 200 hogsheads of tobacco and 3,000 pounds of loose tobacco. The insurance was $35,000.

Rev. James R. Wylie, self-confessed bigamist of Los Angeles, Cal., has been sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and to be imprisoned at Folsom penitentiary for one year. Wylie was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church at New York, where he married his first wife eighteen years ago. Last year the Wylies moved to a mining camp near Phoenix, Ariz., and were visited by Mrs. Fannie M. Green, of New York. The clergyman sent his wife and an adopted child to relatives at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and during their absence married the Green woman at Los Angeles last August.

A dispatch from Lansdale Pa., says that John McKinley, retired merchant and former borough treasurer, fatally shot himself at his home shortly after midnight yesterday morning. He awakened his wife to tell her that burglars were in the house, and insisted so strongly that she went downstairs to investigate. Upon leaving the room, Mrs. McKinley heard two revolver shots, and, returning, found her husband unconscious upon the bed. One ball had gone wide; but the other had entered his right temple and gone directly through his head. He died yesterday morning. Mrs. McKinley would say little, but her husband had been in failing health and at times showed signs of melancholia.

Senator J. C. S. Blackburn will be elected to succeed the late Senator Gorman as chairman of the Senate democratic caucus, which carries with it the floor leadership of the minority. The determination to promote Senator Blackburn in the service of his party colleagues is a tribute both to his popularity and his recognized ability as a leader. He will retire from the Senate next March, and his associates desire to give substantial testimony to the esteem in which they hold the Kentuckian and at the same time utilize his experience and sagacity to the best advantage for their party. The permanent minority leadership of the Senate is still the subject of serious consideration. Messrs. Bailey and Culberson are more frequently mentioned for the place than anybody else.

A dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says that the Sunday Creek Coal Company, J. S. Winder, president, has ordered all its Ohio mines closed. Fifteen West Virginia mines of the company will be operated on the open plan.

A dispatch from Madrid says a terrible storm which occurred at San Lusar caused the death of ten persons and the injury of eight others. Enormous damage to property has resulted.

The Market.

Georgetown, June 8.—Wheat 75@86.

Virginia News.

A terrific electric storm passed over Danville and vicinity yesterday afternoon. Lightning struck the residence of Dr. Robert Brydon, the city clerk and auditor, tearing a large hole in the side of the building.

E. L. Harper, whose attempt to corner the wheat market in 1887 wrecked the Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati, caused losses of many millions, and sent himself and Cashier Hopkins, of the bank, to the penitentiary, has been denied the relief of the United States bankruptcy laws in Abingdon. The government opposed the petition, claiming that no debtor of the United States could obtain relief in the bankruptcy court.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to citizens of this State of the following patents: William R. Bright, Norfolk, veneer-cutting machine; Walker F. Currier, Variety Mills, machine for sizing and cutting stone and other materials; Joseph N. Parker, Bedford City, calendar; John W. Payne, Elba, pruning implement; James H. Price, Shenandoah, flue ferrule; William J. Sterling, Norfolk, rail-track system; William H Thompson and C. J. Swank, Norton, lubricating car-wheel.

Their sympathies aroused by the pretty face of Bessie Brussey, of Luray, whose stepfather, L. L. Brussey, frustrated her plans to elope to Hagerstown and had her detained at Berryville, a crowd of unknown young men decoyed him from the Norfolk and Western railway station at that place early yesterday morning while he was waiting for a train to take the girl back home. Getting him from the light, the men gagged and bound him, and were taking him to the woods in white cap fashion. He finally managed to get the gag from his mouth and cried for help. His yells alarmed the neighborhood, and his assailants fled. Officers then guarded Brussey until the train came.

The funeral of the late Capt. David Meade, of "Benvenue," Clarke county, who died early on Wednesday morning, took place yesterday evening from Meade Memorial Church, at White Post, which was built through his exertions. The services were conducted by Rev. Carter Page, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary. The active pallbearers were Messrs. David Meade, C. Grymes Meade, George C. Meade, Hubert Snowden, Arthur Jackson, Powell Page and M. H. Reardon, while twenty or more of the most prominent citizens of the county acted as honorary pallbearers. The remains were interred in the family lot in the cemetery at the church. Capt. Meade was the last survivor of a large family of children of the late David Meade.

Virginia Weddings.

Miss Mabel Dunn and Mr. Walter Barrow, a prosperous young farmer of Frederick county, were married in Winchester yesterday.

Dr. J. D. Frazer and Miss Sarah Penn Farish, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Farish, of Orange county, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride, in Fredericksburg.

Miss Mary Beall Richards and Mr. Charles Hoover, both of Strasburg, were married last night. The ceremony was preformed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Richards, by Rev. J. D. Hamaker, pastor of the Christian Church, at Strasburg.

Mr. F. M. Viands, of Herndon, Fairfax county, son of Mr. P. M. Viands, of Leesburg, proprietor of the Loudoun Hotel, in Leesburg, and Miss Irene Bauckman, of Herndon, were married on Wednesday afternoon at the bride's residence. After a short bridal tour Mr. and Mrs. Viands will reside in Herndon.

Queer Antics of Tornado.

A tornado passed over Wyoming and North Branch, small towns 15 miles north of St. Paul, Minn., about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, killing one man and doing great damage to the property. It is feared other lives were lost.

The storm seems to have formed near Lindstrom, Minn., and swept in a northeasterly direction, cutting a path about 500 yards wide for a distance of 15 miles.

Everything in its pathway was laid bare, even the grass being cut as though mowed with a scythe. Benjamin Legoo and three other men took refuge from the storm under a bridge crossing a small stream, where the water was three deep. The wind took the bridge from over their heads and sucked all the water out of the stream, leaving the bed perfectly dry. All four of the men were hurt, but none fatally.

All of the buildings on the farm of a man named Magnusson were razed, but he and his family escaped injury by taking refuge in the cellar. The Engdahl residence, on Pine street, three miles from North Branch, was destroyed, and Mr. Engdahl, sr., is reported dead. The other members of the family were seriously injured.

At Wyoming several buildings were demolished. The house and barn of Henry Funk were completely destroyed and his wife and baby severely injured.

Destructive Storms.

A tornado struck Goessel, a German Mennonite, settlement 15 miles southwest of Hillsboro, Kansas, yesterday. Goessel was practically destroyed. About 30 persons were injured. The tornado laid waste a strip 200 yards wide. Several stores and 12 residences were demolished, and every residence in town was damaged. The large Mennonite Hospital was only slightly damaged. The injured were taken there.

A cloudburst yesterday in Central Kansas caused the Cottonwood river to overflow its banks, resulting in much damage to railway property. Water was four feet deep in the main street at Marion, Kan., and 17 inches in the depot there.

Three more deaths are reported from Wednesday night's tornado, which charged over a considerable section of southern Minnesota and western Wisconsin. This brings the whole death list to 4, and the seriously injured to 10. The loss by the storm, including railway bridges, farmhouses, crops, and tobacco warehouses, is estimated at $200,000.

DIED.

Suddenly, on June 7, at 4:30 a. m., JOHN T. HARRISON. Funeral services from his late residence, 737 north Columbus street, which relatives and friends are invited to attend. Interment private.—[Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia papers please copy.

Today's Telegraphic News

New York, June 8.—Judge Lacombe in the United States Circuit Court this morning, handed down an opinion continuing the injunction restraining Attorney General Mayer, District Attorney Jerome, the State gas commission and the city of New York from enforcing the provisions of the eighty-cent gas bill until the final decision of the suit brought by the Consolidated Gas Company is decided by the court. Upon the application to extend the terms of the injunction so as to permit the gas company to collect the 20 cent difference by shutting off the supply of gas to those who refuse to pay the $1 rate, on the condition that the difference shall be deposited in the custody of the United States Circuit Court pending the final decision of the case, Judge Lacombe says that probably a large number of patrons will agree to pay the small difference on each month's bill under this stipulation. He holds, however, that the court cannot confer the power to the gas company to enforce the payment of the $1 rate. "Meanwhile," the opinion reads, "each individual is left free to make his election, and a loss presumably a heavy one which may result in the event of final success the company could not recover."

English Education Bill.

London, June 8.—The controversy here over the education bill pending in Parliament has aroused the greatest interest in the educational methods in use in America. Alfred Mosely, the promoter of the Mosely educational commission, which went to America in 1904 and investigated the school system, has suggested that the government send 500 elementary teachers to America this summer for a six weeks' study of the educational methods in vogue there, and it is probable that the government will instruct the various educational committees to select the most suitable teachers for the trip. The expenses of the visiting teachers will likely be met by a public subscription for the purpose. The bill which is causing so much controversy was introduced in parliament shortly after the present government assumed office. It places the schools directly under local government boards of control, and this feature in particular is being fought by the officials of the church of England.

Charged with Complicity.

Madrid, June 8.—The wife of a republican leader named Matas has been arrested as one of the accomplices of Morales, the would-be assassin of King Alfonso, in assisting the bombthrower to escape. She has confessed that she purchased the clothes of the workingman in which Morales made his escape from the city. On Sunday there will be a remarkable demonstration in front of the royal palace. The affair is planned as a demonstration by the people of their protests against such attempts as that made recently on the life of the King. It is expected that the entire population will participate. Premier Moret will present to King Alfonso tomorrow the names of the new cabinet members. Most of the old ministers will retain their portfolios. The only changes will be in the Minister of Justice, Education and Foreign Affairs.

Heated Argument in Douma.

St. Petersburg, June 8.—The Douma today was the scene of a heated argument in which the various parties were represented in the debate which at times threatened to get beyond all bounds. The question of abolishing the death penalty precipitated the argument which for a time threatened to break up the sitting. The ministerial party proposed the postponement of the consideration of the proposed laws abolishing capital punishment. Members of the labor party opposed any delay, and in violent speeches attacked the ministerial party. The labor members declared that the Douma ought to ignore the ministerial party and proceed to act as it saw fit. The liberals attempted to calm the angry deputies and advocate mildness and moderation by both sides. They made strong appeals to the Douma to continue to legislate along constitutional lines.

Want Reduction Restored.

Fall River, Mass., June 8.—Upon the authority of all the textile unions, the textile council last evening after a discussion of but an hour unanimously voted to request that the manufacturers restore to the 30,000 operatives the 12½ per cent reduction in wages, which precipitated the big strike commencing July 25, 1904. Thomas Taylor in a statement said: "The delegates reported that the unions were practically unanimous in requesting a restoration of the scale to take effect on or before July 2. The secretary was instructed to forward a letter to the Manufacturers' Association containing this request and requesting an answer on or before June 23." Most people believe that a refusal of the demand means a strike.

Killed on a Trolley Car.

Camden, N. J., June 8.—During a panic following the blowing out of a fuse on a special troley car on which were members of the William Jones Association of the Eighth Ward, Bertha Conquest was killed and several persons injured, some time around midnight. The accident occurred at 39th and Federal streets, as the association, composed of colored people, was returning from a ride to Mount Holly.

Battaile Hanged.

Fredericksburg, June 8.—Gabriel Battaile, the young negro who has for some weeks been confined in the jail here awaiting the day for execution for a criminal assault upon Miss Lena Rogers, was hanged at King George Courthouse early this morning.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 7.—Room traders were aggressive sellers of stocks during the first hour, and forced declines of ½ to 1 point in a number of speculative issues, but the market soon developed a strong tone again, and with a few exceptions prices at the end of the first hour not only showed a recovery of early losses, but in a number of instances made material gains. Price movements in the general list were narrow.

A Western Wonder

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Fight with Miners.

Indiana, Pa., June 8.—The striking miners at Ernest, four miles north of here, engaged in a conflict with the State constabulary early this morning, which may result in the death of three of the miners.

A mass meeting has been arranged for this afternoon. While awaiting the arrival of one of the union organizers, the miners paraded through the town several times, headed by a brass band.

The march led past the barracks of the State constabulary. When the miners reached this point one of their number discharged a revolver at the barracks. Other miners then discharged a revolver at the barracks, and this time the bullet struck one of the constables, lodging in his breast.

Immediately the other members of the force lined up and fired a volley into the paraders. Only one volley was fired, but it was effective. Three of the paraders dropped probably fatally injured, while four others escaped with less serious injury.

The ranks of the miners were at once broken, and all fled for safety.

Automobile Race.

Vienna, June 8.—The first driver in the Subert von Komer automobile competition from Frankfort to Vienna entered this city at 10:30 o'clock this morning. He was an Austrian brewer named Brevers and he drove a 90 horse power Mercedaa car. He was followed by the Englishman Daimler.

Prince Henry, of Prussia, did not reach Vienna until an hour later. He could hardly be recognized on account of the mud with which he was covered. When the spectators did discover his identity they cheered him wildly.

Peasant Uprising.

St. Petersburg, June 8.—Although reports of serious peasant uprisings continue to reach the city, the indications are that the situation throughout the provinces is really somewhat improved. The stories of uprisings, however, have caused a feeling of uneasiness.

One report says that at Alkhovo 125 houses were burned and that at Moisans fifty houses were burned and 160 women perished in the flames.

Trains Collide.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8.—Iron Mountain passenger train No. 9, which left here last night, collided with passenger train No 10 from Memphis at Menge, Mo., at 2:30 this morning. Both engines were wrecked. Fireman Spinkley on No. 10 was killed and the engineer injured. Several tramps were also hurt. No passengers were injured.

Joined the Association.

West Point, N. Y., June 8.—The University of Pennsylvania has joined the intercollegiate athletic association of the colleges and universities of the United States. Thirty colleges and Universities have already become members of this association, which desires to control and elevate to a higher plane college athletics throughout the United States. The advent of Pennsylvania is of interest since this institution was one of the seven that formerly controlled football.

Septic Poison Kills Nurse.

A little scratch on the right hand of Miss Edith Killmer, head nurse in a cancer sanatorium in Jamaica, New York, was the cause of her death after three days of great suffering. She was accidentally infected with the septic poison from a cancer patient's wound. Miss Killmer chanced to strike her right hand against a glass screen and barely broke the skin. She had forgotten the scratch when a half hour later she dressed a case of cancer of the breast. If she had observed all the rigid rules of cancer hospitals she would not have permitted her bare hands to touch the affected spot, but with a carelessness and disregard of danger resulting from nearly 12 years experience, she neglected to put on rubber gloves. In less than an hour Miss Killmer felt a twinge of pain in her arm. She paid little heed to it, but soon there came another twinge, this time more severe. Later the pain became quite severe, and then came the unmistakeable symptons of blood poison. Miss Killmer was seized with chills. She went to her cousin, Dr C. J. Killmer, head of the sanatorium, and told him that there was no mistaking the symptoms; she had the cancer virus in her blood. She was quite brave and composed, though she realized the danger. Miss Killmer's arm began to swell noticeably and she became prostrated. For three days the young woman suffered torture. At 9:30 Tuesday night she died.

Killed by Electric Shock.

While attempting to hang himself in a cell, where he was confined for attempting to escape from Ellis Island, Antonio Martino, an immigrant, met death there yesterday by electrocution. In his struggles to attach a small piece of rope around his neck, one end of which he had attached to the cell bars, the prisoner disconnected an electric light wire and was shocked to death. His cries were heard all through the building, where a large number of immigrant were awaiting examination, and great excitement followed. Guards rushed to the cell where Martino was kept, only to find the man dead and flames smoldering in his clothing. Martino, who was to have been deported for not having the necessary funds to support himself in this country, had made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from Ellis Island. He was caught, and to prevent him from trying it again was locked in a cell.

Charged With Embezzlement.

W. L. Francis, 26 years old, was yesterday morning arrested in Richmond upon a charge of having embezzled a large amount of money from Petit & Co., his employers. Francis was sent to the bank with instructions to deposit a large sum of money and checks. An entry in the book on his return corresponded with the sum he was supposed to have deposited. On Wednesday morning a young lady stenographer was sent to the bank. She passed the book containing the money and checks to the receiving teller, and was immediately notified by that official that the entry of the previous day was a forgery. Francis admitted his guilt when arrested. He said that he was driven to the deed because of his engagement to elope with a young woman, who was to have met him on a certain corner almost at the hour of the arrest.

Eight miners are dead and it is believed that several others lost their lives as the result of white damp that followed the fire in mines of the Rocky Fork Coal Company, at Red Lodge, Mont., yesterday.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, June 8.

SENATE.

Senator Stone today presented to the Senate a number of telegrams from Missouri live stock men and associations pleading for an immediate announcement from the Secretary of Agriculture that the meat investigation was thorough, in order to prevent the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars.

HOUSE.

The Senate disagreement to the conference report on the railroad rate bill was reported to the House today.

The House today established a new record for expediting the dispatch of business by passing 357 pension bills in 53 minutes.

Further consideration was then given to the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Miss Rockefeller in Disguise.

To escape detectives hired by unknown persons to follow her and her father, Miss Ethel G. Rockefeller, daughter of William Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Company, had to cross the Atlantic Ocean under an assumed name.

Miss Rockefeller arrived in New York Wednesday on the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. She was posted on the passenger list as "Fraulein E. Raynor," occupied an ordinary stateroom and was accompanied by a maid.

The young woman figured, however, without proper consideration for the watchful eye of the government officials. When it came to answering certain questions which both immigration and customs employees invariably put to every incoming passenger, Miss Rockefeller was obliged to admit that she was an American. This led to her revealing her identity.

The young woman said that she left her father 10 days ago in Germany. They went over 16 months ago in the hope that Mr. Rockefeller might recover from a nervous disorder, and detectives followed them day and night all over Europe.

The government officials incidentally learned from her that her father had planned to return from Europe in the company of James Stillman, president of the National City Bank, in New York, in about a month, and that he has been almost completely cured of the nervous trouble which compelled him to go abroad under the belief that he was a victim of cancer. He has already engaged passage home.

Rojestvensky Indicted.

The Naval Court of Inquiry at St. Petersburg has presented an indictment against Vice-Admiral Rojestvenky, who commanded the Russian fleet at the battle of the Sea of Japan, and the officers of the torpedo-boat destroyer Bedovi for surrendering to the enemy after the battle.

The indictment is a crushing arraignment of the demoralization and cowardice of the officers, contrasting their conduct with that of the officers of the torpedo-boat Grozny, which in practically the same position as the Bedovi engaged and sank a Japanese torpedo boat. The trial of the indicted officers has been fixed for July 4. The penalty is death.

The Rech says that General Rennenkampff, who commanded the Cossack cavalry division during the war with Japan, has preferred charges against Lieutenant-General Linevitch, who was commander of the Russian army in Manchuria, for holding communications with the revolutionary committee of the railroad men during the strike on the Siberian railroad.

The army organ demands the trial by court-martial of Colonel Reiman, of the Semiovsky Regiment of the Guards for ordering summary executions during and subsequent to the Moscow uprising. It cites 12 cases where the colonel ordered men to be shot without trial.

Human Freak

Doctors at Cornell Medical School are puzzled over the case of Warren B. Harris, of Ithaca, N. Y., and pronounce him one of the most remarkable human freaks in the world today. Harris changes color whenever there are changes in atmospheric conditions, varying from a light chalk gray through light blue, violet into deep purple, which causes observers who do not notice the Anglo-Saxon cast of his features to mistake him for a negro. Harris, however, is of pure white parentage. He was born in Corry, Pa., and is twenty-seven years of age. Cornell doctors say that Harris is known as a blue baby. They seldom survive the first month after birth and Harris is the only one that is known to have lived more than three months. The chameleon-like qualities of Harris are due to a congenital defect of the heart. This causes oxygen starvation and the effect is like that of a man choking, black in the face, or an invalid blue all over his body from pneumonia. Harris is small, being slightly over five feet and weighing about ninety pounds.

City School Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the City School Board was held last night. Captain Herbert Bryant presided, and Messrs. Stabler, Yates, Thompson, Ramsay, Thomson, Bradshaw, Carne, Boothe, Smith and Carter were present.

Mr. Yates, chairman of the committee on school houses and furniture, reported that he had ordered some repairs to be made upon Washington school building, rendered necessary by the storm of last Wednesday evening. He also stated that similar action had been taken at the Seaton building, which had also suffered from the storm. Mr. Yates recommended that certain other repairs be made to the latter building. He was requested to obtain estimates for a new fence around the Washington school building on Washington street, the board to determine later whether to erect an iron or wooden fence.

A communication was received from Mrs. S. Y. McDaniel, principal of Lee school, tendering her resignation of that position. Mrs. McDaniel has been a teacher in the Alexandria public schools for 35 years, and is compelled to relinquish her services by reason of failing health.

The resignation was accepted and the clerk directed to communicate to Mrs. McDaniel the fact that her services in the public schools of Alexandria for over a third of a century are appreciated by the School Board.

Mr. Thomson, of the finance committee, presented a new bond given by Mr. T. W. Robinson, City Treasurer, who disburses the school funds, which was accepted. The bond was for $2,000.

Dr. Smith, of a special committee appointed to apply to the City Council for an additional appropriation to the public school fund, reported progress.

Mr. Stabler, in the absence of City Superintendent Kemper, moved that the studies in the public schools cease on Friday, the 22d instant, and the schools be closed on the 25th and 26th instant. The motion was adopted.

The clerk was directed to procure the usual medal and cards of honor for the closing exercises, after which the board adjourned.

The Curtin Murder Mystery.

Interest in the Curtin murder mystery, which was again revived Wednesday evening by the arrest of several men and women who are believed to be in possession of important information, is growing every hour.

As was stated in the Gazette, Officer Knight returned from Baltimore yesterday with Ada Smith, 28 years old, who, it is believed, can throw considerable light on the murder. The authorities say they have evidence to show that Curtin visited that night the home of Ada Smith, who left Alexandria as soon as Curtin's body was found. The woman was arrested in a house on Fayette street, near Front, in Baltimore, about 10 a. m. She was taken before Justice Grannan, of the Central Police Station, and consented to return to this city without requisition proceedings.

George N. Proctor, a well-known printer of this city, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Policeman Donnelly, of the first precinct, Washington, at the corner of Twelfth street and Pennsylvania avenue Washington and was turned over to Officer Beach, of the police force of this city, who brought him to Alexandria. Proctor, it was alleged, is acquainted with facts which would lead to the solution of the mystery which has baffled the police since early last January. He was, however, released early this morning by order of Commonwealths Attorney Brent. It was said that he did not correspond to a man bearing the name of Proctor who was in the north Lee street house on the night Curtin disappeared.

Harry Meeks was also released from custody this morning, Cole refusing to swear to the warrant which had been issued against him.

Stephen Davis and the women who were taken in custody last Wednesday, together with Ada Smith, who was arrested in Baltimore yesterday, will be taken before the grand jury next Monday.

Federation of Labor.

The following State officers were elected for the ensuing year by the Virginia Federation of Labor in session in this city yesterday. President J. M. Ryall, of Richmond; first vice president, J. M. O'Connor, of Norfolk; second vice president, R. C. Meeks, of Roanoke; third vice president, J. B. Clindinst, of Newport News; fourth vicepresident, Thomas Nolan, of Portsmouth; fifth vice president, R. F. Prettyman, of Alexandria; sixth vice president, M. L. Lanthrum, of Fredericksburg; secretary-treasurer, R. C. Pace, of Richmond; sergeant-at-arms, J. O. Rouk, of Roanoke; members of the legislative committee, M. F. Fisher, W. H. Mullen, J. B. Fitzgerald, Phillip Metz, all of Richmond; members of the committee on appeals, J. S. Rea, L. J. Jourdan, W. H. Noel, A. L. Phillips and W. E. Kelly.

There was no public meeting of the federation at the Opera House last night, as had been announced.

Baseball

The Alexandria Athletic Club will play the strong Arion Athletic Club, of Washington, on the old fair grounds tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock. The Arions are composed of the best departmental league players. The Alexandria team has been greatly strengthened and a good game is expected. The Alexandria team goes to Fort Myer Sunday evening for a game with the team of that place and will go to Leesburg next Saturday.

The Weather.

The temperature yesterday and during the early part of last night was sultry and many people were on the streets in consequence, seeking cool places. About ten o'clock the wind, which had changed to the northeast, grew strong and more refreshing. The heavens became cloudy and cooler weather followed. The temperature today has been mild and the weather threatening.

The Portner Will.

The will of the late Robert Portner was probated in Washington yesterday. In addition to the bequests mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, Mr. Portner directs that the household furniture in his home, No. 1104 Vermont avenue, Washington, and of his country place at Manassas shall belong to his widow, Mrs. Anna Portner, during her life. After that it shall be held by the children until the estate is settled. The executor and trustee, is authorized to pay annuities of $35 per month to Otto Portner, $100 a month to Felixine Wilkening, and $50 a month to Augusta Strangmann, of Rahden, Prussia. The annuitants are brother and sisters of the deceased. In addition to the monthly allowance Felixine Wilkening is to receive $5,000 in cash. The income from the remaining estate it to be paid one-half to the children and to the widow one-half during the term of the trust created by the will. After the term named has expired the estate is to be divided equally among the children.

Didn't Prove "Trusty."

William Jackson, an inmate of the city jail, who was recently sent to that institution for a misdemeanor, and who had been regarded as a "trusty," was sent out by Warden Candler this morning to purchase some clams. Jackson proceeded to King street and entered Dyson & Brother's bookstore, where he purchased a five-cent novel. The proprietor supposed his customer had left the store when he heard a noise proceeding from behind the counter and upon making an investigation saw Jackson attempting to open the money drawer. The would-be thief ran out of the door followed by Mr. Dyson. Jackson ran up King to Washington street and started north on that thoroughfare. Upon reaching Queen street he ran east and was later caught by Mr. Dyson and others who had joined in the chase. Jackson was locked up in the station house

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Ada Smith, arrested by Officer Knight in connection with the investigation of the murder of George Curtin, was held. George N. Proctor, arrested in connection with the same case, was dismissed by order of the Commonwealth's Attorney.

William Lloyd arrested by Officer Sherwood charged with using vulgar and abusive language toward Viola Bledsoe, was dismissed.

Robert Posey, charged with breaking window glass, was dismissed upon promising to pay the damages he had caused.

Shot by a Negro.

James Brown, a watchman employed in the railway freight yards, a short distance west of this city, ordered an unknown negro from the company's property yesterday. The intruder became menacing when the watchman drew his revolver to protect himself. The negro snatched the weapon from his hand and fired. The ball passed through Brown's hip, and he was removed to the office of Dr. S. B. Moore in this city for surgical treatment. The negro took refuge in the swamp at the head of Hunting creek. Late last night the swamp was surrounded by a crowd of men, determined to effect the capture of the fugitive. Brown is said to be badly injured.

Property Restored.

A lady living on Peyton street, between Prince and Duke, recently purchased some furniture on the instalment plan from a house in another city. A payment was due this morning, but when the agent called on the lady she was not prepared to meet her obligation. The agent, it is said, became abusive, so much so that the mistress of the house started for the station house to procure a warrant for his arrest. In her absence the agent entered the house and removed some of the furniture to another building. Officer Garvey soon appeared and ascertained the whereabouts of the property and restored it to the lady.

Claim Referred.

The United States Senate committee on claims by a resolution adopted yesterday referred to the United States Court of Claims for final settlement the claim of Mr. George A. Nowland, of this city. Mr. Nowland has himself represented this interest both before the courts and the committee of Congress.

Quick Work.

England and Russia.

Recent developments in diplomatic circles lend credence to rumors that an undertaking between Russia and Great Britain approaching an alliance in time may be expected.

Evidences have been noted of the change in the attitude of Russia towards Great Britain for sometime. Suspicion, which formerly characterized the Russian position toward Great Britain, seems to be waning, and this is regarded as the forerunner of closer relations between the two powers.

It is this change in the Russian attitude, rather than anything which Great Britain is doing, which lends color to the reports of closer relations between the two powers.

The chasm between the two nations which widened with the sinking of the British trawler by Russian men-of-war off the Dogger Banks seems to be narrowing at a rapid rate. With the close of the Russo-Japanese war many of the causes for unfriendliness between Great Britain and Russia disappeared, and the improved relations between them have been the cause of much comment in diplomatic circles.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The roof of the residence of Mr. Paul R. Evans, on south Henry street, was damaged by the storm of last Wednesday evening. Several trees on the premises were blown down.

The three-masted schooner Luther T. Garretson, Capt. Haikell, from Hillsboro, Nova Scotia, with plaster for the Bryant Fertilizer Company, has arrived.

The electric railway wires at the intersection of King and Royal streets fell last night and this morning. They were replaced in position as soon as possible.

A mass meeting will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street, tomorrow night at which the claims of working men will be presented.

Tim. Madden and Thomas O'Brien who were charged with vagrancy and resisting an officer were arrested today by Officer Garvey and locked up.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS!

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 8, 1906.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the Dog or Canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring Dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two Dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such Dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

☞ In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

Mr. Bryan Endorsed.

Democrats of Indiana in convention in Indianapolis yesterday adopted a platform strongly indorsing W. J Bryan for the presidency and selected a state ticket for all officers expect governor and reporter of the Supreme Court. Benjamin F. Shively of South Bend, former congressman from the Thirteenth Indiana district, was permanent chairman. Mr. Shively said: "The use of governmental power for private purposes is the beginning of what is today called graft. Such use of governmental power creates a distinct class in the country with interests special and apart from the interests common to their fellow citizens. The beneficiaries of governmental power unconsciously come to regard their own peculiar privileges as of paramount public concern. They come to countenance and even support other abuses and mischiefs in government so long as their own special advantages are conserved. The result of this old system of farming out the powers of government has been to bring into the public a confederacy of special privilege that is today contesting for supremacy with the American people." Referring to W. J. Bryan, he said: "That which is today eulogized and approved as broad statemanship and enlightened patriotism in Theodore Roosevelt was only a few years ago denounced as reactionary, revolutionary and unpatriotic in William Jennings Bryan. The aftersight of the one is almost equal to the foresight of the other."

Mr. Spencer's Salary.

The monotony of the freight-rate cases now pending before the State Corporation Commission in Richmond, was broken just before adjournment yesterday when Mr. H. B. Spencer, general manager of the Southern Railway, was asked the pertinent question, "How much salary do you get?"

This embarrassing question came from Allen Caperton Braxton, who is assisting the Attorney-General as the representative of the State, and followed a long and tiresome series of questions regarding the expenses of the system.

Mr. Spencer led on by Mr. Braxton's officials inquisitiveness, had told about the increase of expenses in nearly all departments of the road and of the increased cost of material. Mr. Braxton next wanted to know about the compensation of the general officers—a question Mr. Spencer could not answer, nor could he even say what his predecessors had received. Then Mr. Braxton asked about the salary.

Mr. Thom, counsel for the Southern, was on his feet in a second and was protesting. He asked to argue the matter further, and the commission adjourned without the question having been answered. Mr. Braxton, however, says he is going to stick to his point, and everybody is anxious to know about young Spencer's annual salary.

Knights of Columbus.

The National Council of the Knights of Columbus brough the week's festivities practically to a close at New Haven, Conn., last night by choosing Norfolk, Va., as the place for holding the next convention. The delegates will meet while the Jamestown Exposition is on.

The ruling of the Insurance Commissioner of Missouri refusing to permit the order to do insurance business in that State if Daniel Colwell, W. M. Geary, M. C. O'Connor and C. T. Driscoll, all of New Haven and the original incorporators, were permitted to vote on insurance matters or life members was considered. The subject was reported back to the council, with the recommendation that no change be made. The council adopted the recommendation. If any attempt is made to prevent the order from doing an insurance business in Missouri, it is probable that the question will go to the courts.

In view of the heavy surplus which the order has on hand, it was thought advisable to make a change in the rate system, and a level rate was recommended instead of the present step rate, which went into effect a few years ago. A committee of three was appointed to take the subject up and make a report later.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)

"I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice to girls in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)

"It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.

"But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular, and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

Legalizing Courting

T. Spence Smith, of Rapides, La., has introduced in the State legislature a bill to regulate marriage contracts and prevent race suicide. The bill only applies to whites, and provides:

"It shall be unlawful for any young man to attempt to court any young woman before he is twenty four years of age. Before making such attempt he shall inform the parents or guardian of the woman he proposes to court of his intention to do so. He shall also make affidavit before a justice of the peace that his courtship will be in good faith, and for the purpose of trying to convince the young woman that it will be profitable for her to marry him. It shall be unlawful for widowers over the age of forty to attempt to court any woman under the age of eighteen beyond the confines of the parish of their residence. After the passage of the act all children born to legally married people in Louisiana shall be raised and educated at public expense. All male children shall be sent to the State University, at Baton Rouge, and all female children to the State Normal School, at Natchitoches."

An appropriation of $17,000,000 to carry out this educational feature is provided for in the bill.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach, once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Boy Attacked by a Sow.

Upon going to his field yesterday Huler Wynn, a farmer, living near Cadiz, Ky., was horrified to see his 5-year-old boy lying on the ground while an enraged sow fiercely attacked him. The father drove the animal away, and upon examining his child found that both arms and legs had been broken and that he had been disemboweled. The little boy was still alive at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but the attending physician said that his injuries were mortal. The child had wondered to the field to play, and found the sow there with her litter of pigs. He was chasing the young animals when the mother became angry and attacked him. She threw him prostrate and stamped upon him, breaking his limbs. With her sharp teeth she tore his body open.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Druggists.
